

What is GREENGUARD Certified?

GREENGUARD Certification Helps Identify Healthier Products

As the demand for healthier, more sustainable products continues to expand, consumers and building industry professionals increasingly demand substantiation of product sustainability claims and rely on trustworthy third-party certifiers to guide purchasing and specification decisions. GREENGUARD Certification provides the market with solutions and resources to identify products with lower chemical emissions and provides manufacturers with credible tools to legitimize and promote their sustainability efforts.

	The UL GREENGUARD Certification is the industry's first to address indoor air quality concerns comprehensively, based on rigorous testing standards like UL 2818. The UL GREENGUARD mark is a trusted mark that enables audiences of all types make informed, healthier choices. All certified products are subject to a review of the manufacturing process and routine testing to demonstrate minimal impact on the indoor environment. Office furniture products that are UL GREENGUARD Certified also comply with the Business and Institutional Furniture Manufacturer's Association (BIFMA) X7.1 standard.
	The UL GREENGUARD Gold Certification Standard is an elevated certification, providing greater protection for sensitive groups. This certification highlights its role in contributing to healthier environments where safety and well-being is paramount. UL GREENGUARD GOLD sets even lower VOC emission limits, making it the optimal certification for products in nurseries, schools, healthcare facilities, and homes where children's safety is paramount. In addition to limiting emissions of more than 360 VOCs and total chemical emissions, UL GREENGUARD Gold Certified products must also comply with the requirements of the California Department of Public Health (CDPH) Standard Method for the Testing and Evaluation of Volatile Organic Chemical Emissions from Indoor Sources Using Environmental Chambers, also known as California Section 01350.
